Greer, SC (November 17, 2007) – North American Rescue Foundation contributed $25,000 to the Marine Corp Law Enforcement Foundation, an organization founded in 1995 dedicated to providing children of Marines or Federal law enforcement personnel killed on duty with college scholarships and healthcare financial assistance.

The Foundation has also given to children who have lost parents in devastating tragedies such as the Pentagon attack, the USS Cole disaster, Khobar Towers, and the space shuttle Columbia catastrophe. To date, the Marine Corp Law Enforcement Foundation has distributed more than $40 million in aid.
