FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

NORTH AMERICAN RESCUE DONATES $100,000 TO BATTLE INTERNET PREDATORS

North American Rescue, Inc. donated $100,000 to fund a mobile lab, including 26 laptops, to train law enforcement officers how to catch Internet predators targeting children.

President and CEO of North American Rescue, Robert Castellani decided to donate the funds after deputies from the Greenville County sheriff's office made him aware of the urgent need.

"This is a great day for the state because it demonstrates what private citizens can do when they want to get involved," said state Attorney General Henry McMaster.

North American Rescue, Inc., based in Greer, South Carolina, has enjoyed the honor of serving their country, community, and customers for over a decade. By providing innovative casualty care solutions to first responders, health care professionals, and security forces at home and abroad, NAR is leading the fray to decrease preventable death on the battlefield, whether it be a foreign combat zone or the streets of America.

North American Rescue Foundation, established by North American Rescue, Inc. and Robert Castellani, has donated more than $8,000,000 over the last 7 years, swiftly becoming a symbol of good will and hope in troubled times.
